Already showing in prime time on NBC in America, the comedic series starts with The Rock's 2032 Presidential bid as he looks back at the life of a young Dwayne Johnson and how he grew up to become famously known as "The Rock". The series covers Johnson's father, Rocky Johnson, and his career as a WWF wrestler alongside Andre The Giant, Macho Man Randy Savage and Sgt.Slaughter played by Wayne.

" It was amazing filming Young Rock in Brisbane last year during Covid. Playing an iconic character like Sgt. Slaughter was fun and the feedback we are getting for the show in the US is extremely positive. I can't wait till it airs here in Australia" says Wayne.

Born in Glenelg, South Australia, Wayne has had a long and dynamic career of over 30 years as a pro wrestler, champion bodybuilder and providing security to high profile clients and celebrities across the globe. In the last few years he has worked with A-list Hollywood stars that include: John Travolta, Jean Claude Van Damme, Steven Seagal and David Beckham to name a few, as well as Rock bands, Models, Athletes, corporate figures and MAFS personalities Jessika Power and Cyrell!

Alongside this Mattei has acted in several movies, television shows and commercials; "Maniac – Protector & Enforcer" – Web Series (2019), Broken Hill (2009), The Boys Are Back with Clive Owen (2009), Craziiness (2015), Jesus Walks (2017), Johnny Depp's Pirates of the Caribbean: Dead Men Tell No Tales (2017) and most recently, Never Too Late (2020). Never Too Late saw Mattei act as the giant male nurse alongside James Cromwell, Jackie Weaver, Jack Thompson, Shane Jacobsen and Dennis Waterman. Young Rock will be available to view in Australia later this year. Follow Wayne on Instagram @hellsvigilante
