ZEN Esports Network and ESL Announce CS:GO Invitational at The Palms, Melbourne

Esports is back at The Palms with 2 days of electrifying CS:GO action!

The ZEN Esports Network CS:GO Invitational will feature Australia's top CS:GO teams, facing off against each other in a battle for glory, and their share of a $20,000 prize pool on January 14th and 15th, 2017.

Day one of the event will showcase two of ANZ's top CS:GO rosters - Parallax Gaming and Team Immunity - as they compete for a place in the ZEN Esports Network League for 2017 against two of Australia's up-and-coming teams.

Day two will pit the best Australian CSGO Talent - our local hopefuls Tainted Minds and Chiefs Esports Club - against their toughest competition yet, two high-profile guest lineups (to be announced closer to the event). Over the course of the day, the teams will compete in a Best of 3, single elimination format to find the top contender.

Watch the action live

Tickets are available for both days of the event, starting at $55 for a standard seat. Each ticket includes all-day access to the event, signing sessions will also be held each day & give spectators a chance to meet their favourite CS:GO player in Australia. For those that want to display their support, merchandise from local & global teams will also be available to purchase on the day.

For spectators coming along with friends, group booths are also available for up to 8 people. Including wait service direct to your booth, these intimate booths are a great way to experience the best CS:GO action Australia has to offer.

For those that can't make it, all the action will be broadcast live on Twitch at twitch.tv/esl_csgo.

What is the ZEN Esports Network?

The ZEN Esports Network has partnered with ESL Australia to bring Australian esports to the next level. With the new ZEN Esports Network CS:GO League, Australia's top CS:GO teams will compete against the best teams in the greater Asia-Pacific region over the course of 10 weeks. Each match of the league will be broadcast live from the ESL Studio in Sydney, Australia.
